DOINGS OF STATE SOLONS AT FRANKFORT.

The House passed 70 to 12 the bill of Claude M. Thomas to prevent smoking in public dining rooms which admit women as customers, and eleven other bills, most of them of local importance to different sections of the State. It also passed 67 to 8 Representative E. C. Hardin's text book bill, which prohibits the change of more than fifty per cent. of the books in the rural schools and in cities of the fifth and sixth class in any five year adoption period. The bill gives the dealers 20 per cent. commission for handling the books.

A delegation of women appeared before the Rules Committee of the House in behalf of the bill appropriating $50,000 for the Girls' Reform School when a farm shall have been provided for its site.

By the vote of 30 to 2 the Senate passed the bill of Senator Whitaker to permit persons moving from one county to another four months before primary to vote if sixty days resident of the precinct.

President Black signed the following enrolled Senate bills: To regulate advertisements of cures for venereal diseases; to create Kentucky Council of Defense during the war and to merge duties of Hotel Inspector, Food Inspector and Tuberculosis Commission in State Board of Health.

Anatole LeBraz, Brittany's famous poet and author, made a distinct hit with the Kentuckians who had the pleasure of hearing his address before a joint session of the General Assembly when he compared his native province of France with Kentucky, told how Brittany and Kentucky were both horse producing countries, and of the fact that his wife was a Kentuckian.

After his address M. LeBraz was introduced to many of the members and ladies in attendance by Senator R. C. Simmons, of Covington. Among the gentlemen he met was Hon. C. M. Thomas, of Bourbon, who spent four delightful years in France as consul at Marseilles.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO BOURBON COUNTY FARMERS

After making a careful survey of the State of Kentucky, Dr. Fred Mutchler, director of extension work of the University of Kentucky, at Lexington, has been able to locate a limited supply of seed corn in the western part of the State. All people who are in need of seed corn can obtain same by communicating with Dr. Mutchler at the University of Kentucky, Lexington, Ky., by telegraph or long distance telephone. The supply is limited and, as we understand the price is very reasonable, it will require quick action to obtain this corn before it is bought by other States in the Union.

FRED M. SACKETT,
Federal Food Commissioner For Kentucky.

For its buildings all over the country, its war ships, army posts and light houses the United States government every year buys enough coal to make a pile a mile square and ten feet high.
